

THIRTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
CYCLE C
PRAYER OF THE FAITHFUL

Celebrant: How glorious is the peace and hope of resurrection! Let us pray with hearts set free from foolish doubt or hesitation, because we believe in the promise of the One who rose again in our frail flesh to eternal splendor.

Our response is: Lord, hear our prayer.

1. For an outpouring of the Holy Spirit of truth and faith in the Church today, let us pray to the Lord.

Response: Lord, hear our prayer.

2. For nations where freedom of religion is impeded by bigotry and ignorance, let us pray to the Lord.

Response: Lord, hear our prayer.

3. For mutual respect and understanding between Christians and Jews and the followers of Islam, let us pray to the Lord.

Response: Lord, hear our prayer.

4. For those who have entered their last hours on this earth, let us pray to the Lord.

Response: Lord, hear our prayer.

5. That all who are in need may find suitable employment, let us pray to the Lord.

Response: Lord, hear our prayer.

6. For those who died in sure and certain hope of resurrection, let us pray to the Lord.

Response: Lord, hear our prayer.

Celebrant: God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, God of the living, to whom all are in fact alive, grant the petitions we bring before you, through Christ our Lord. Amen.
